

October 2008 Devotion
Lutheran Campus Ministry at Haskell Indian Nations University
In the 2007-2009 Biennium

“And with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.” Rev. 5:9

Leader: We begin in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of your Baptism.

Leader: Christ came to save all people of every nation, including every Native American Nation.

All: May these young people from the Haskell LIGHT House spread the Word of the Lord to the four winds so that every tribe and nation may know the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

Leader: There are Native American tribes, Alaska Natives, and First Nations communities in remote and difficult-to-reach locations throughout the United States.

All: Lord, bless the Lutheran Association of Missionaries and Pilots U.S. that there always will be people willing and able to travel to remote communities to reach your children with the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

Leader: There are many Native Americans who have left their homes for the first time and are homesick and afraid of the ways of this world.

All: May they find comfort in knowing that other Native Americans are their teachers, and that we are all sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus.

(An Indian Prayer)

All: Oh Holy Spirit, whose breath gives life to the world, hear me. I come to you as one of your many children. I am small and weak. I need your strength and wisdom. May I walk in faith, make my eyes behold the red and purple sunset, make my hands respect the things that you have made, and make my ears sharp to hear your Word. Make me wise so that I may know the things that you have taught your children. Make me strong...not to be superior to my brothers, but to be able to fight my greatest enemy -- myself. Make me ever ready to come to you with straight eyes so that when life fades as the faded sunset, my spirit will come to you without shame for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen.
