

CONVENTION CENTRAL :: LWML Plays in Peoria

In less than a year the opening worship service for the 34th Biennial Lutheran Women’s Missionary League Convention will begin with joyful praise for the work the Lord has done through LWML. The voices of the convention choir will be joined by the thousands of others in attendance. The words of proclaimer Dr. Ken Klaus will focus on the theme “Being with Jesus — Living on the Edge.”

Today is a great day to begin your plans to be in Peoria, Illinois, Thursday, June 23–Sunday, June 25, 2011.

From President Jan’s blog – June 18, 2010

Wish you were here...again!

On Wednesday, June 16, it was my privilege to present another grant check on your behalf. While visiting in Austin, Texas, I went to the offices of Lutheran Social Services of the South. What a thrill to be able to hand Dr. Kurt Senske, Chief Executive Officer, a grant check for $25,000 in partial payment for grant #4 – Psalm 69:14 Project: Emergency Disaster Aid in Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. We also met with some of the staff who are working with the people that will benefit directly from this grant. Dr. Senske shared that much of their work is among the “poorest of the poor,” people who are left with nothing following hurricanes. God’s love is shown to them in tangible ways, meeting their basic needs. Thank
