LWML CHRISTMAS CARD AND DESIGNER WIN RECOGNITION

The LWML Christmas card and its designer, Judy Newell, have received recognition in the St. Louis, Missouri, community. The card will be featured in the November 7, 2009, issue of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, the widely circulated local newspaper. It can also be viewed on that day and following on the Post-Dispatch Web site: www.sttoday.com.

Judy Newell, card designer, describes the card: "This is a striking, evocative four-color card with the word 'Savior' across the card. The Baby Jesus is nestled in the 'S' of Savior. In the lower right of the watercolor card, the wise men are seen riding their camels."

The card can be a useful tool in spreading the Good News about the Savior Jesus Christ to family and friends. Ms. Newell shares, "This card brings home the true meaning of Christmas." The Scripture verse from Titus printed inside the card ties into the sharing the message, along with the beautiful calligraphy that reads, "The wise men were looking for a king, but found the Savior of the World. Rejoice in our Savior!"

This award-winning Christmas card is available only through the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. A package of 10 cards with envelopes is only $6.50 per package. Order Christmas cards from the LWML Catalog (#16520-09) or on the secure Web site at www.lwml.org.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For over 65 years, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.
