LWML PARLIAMENTARIAN ELECTED MAYOR

Lutheran Women's Missionary League Parliamentarian Barbara Volk has been elected mayor of Hendersonville, North Carolina with a 66% vote against two opponents. Barbara has a long history with the LWML, most recently serving on national LWML as Recording Secretary and Planner. As LWML Parliamentarian, Ms. Volk also assists the LWML Structure Committee with their body of work.

Mayor-Elect Volk shares the following: "I had many people working with me and helping me and a great number of them were from my church family. I thank God for them and their support in money, volunteer time, and prayers."

"The city of Hendersonville is getting a fine Christian woman as mayor," LWML President Janice Wendorf states. "May God's love shine through her in this avenue of public service!"

Congratulations are extended to Barbara Volk, a faithful Lutheran Woman in Mission. May God bless her endeavors to His glory and to the benefit of Hendersonville, North Carolina.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For over 65 years, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.
