Authors of New LWML Book on Mission Grants Seek Stories

Are you a missionary who has seen or experienced the benefits of an LWML grant in Africa, Europe, or Asia? Have you ever visited a country on these continents and personally observed the results of one or more national LWML grants? Do you know of a former missionary who has a story to tell?

If your answer is yes, then your help is needed. Authors Janice Brauer, Lauren Beale, and Marlys Taege are collaborating on a new LWML book that will share how the Lord has blessed our mission grants on those continents. These authors know what was done with the mission grant money, but they need stories — stories of people who benefited and changes that took place in lives or communities because of those mission grants. If you have a story or special memory, please e-mail them as follows:

- European grants – Janice Brauer - brauer83@comcast.net
- African grants – Lauren Beale - mlbeale@milwpc.com
- Asian grants (including India, China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Philippines and New Guinea) – Marlys Taege - marlyst@sbcglobal.net

Your help will be deeply appreciated and appropriately acknowledged. If you know of someone who has a story to tell but who does not have e-mail, please ask them to call 414-357-6672 for a mailing address where they can send the story.
